

The empty church

What is the church building like when it has no congregation present?

What draws your eye and attracts your attention?

What does this say about worship and what is important to worshippers?

The church during regular worship

What draws your eye and attracts your attention first now?

What kind of atmosphere is being created?

What part does music play in this?

Worship through the eyes of visitors

What might attract their attention when the church is empty?

What might attract their attention when worship is in progress?

What might they take away with them from the experience?